The LORD is doing a new thing

See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:19 (ESV)

Emotionally Healthy Spirituality

(General)

Can Christians grow spiritually while remaining emotionally immature? The truth is, spiritual maturity and emotional health are inseparable. Many sincere followers of Jesus may be passionate about God and actively involved in ministry, yet remain emotionally immature. This immaturity often surfaces in unhealthy relational patterns, difficulty managing emotions, unresolved past wounds, and a lack of self-awareness. In this compelling DVD study, best-selling author Pete Scazzero presents a proven, biblical framework that integrates emotional health with contemplative spirituality. This strategy has helped tens of thousands around the world experience a deeper, more authentic faith—marked by genuine transformation and a profound love for God, self, and others.

Preparing for Marriage

(General)

Marriage is a sacred decision that calls for intentional preparation. Great marriages don't just happen—they're purposefully built long before the words "I do" are exchanged. While it's easy to get swept up in the excitement of planning for the wedding, what truly matters is preparing for a marriage that will last a lifetime. This course is designed for Christian couples who are planning to get married or have been married for less than three years. It aims to help lay a strong, Christ-centered foundation for a lifelong partnership. Together, couples will explore topics such as clarifying roles and expectations, building healthy communication and conflict resolution skills, managing finances, understanding family backgrounds, planning a church wedding—and much more.

This course is required for all couples who desire to be married in Calvary Church.

Mandarin Class: The Sermon on the Mount

The Sermon on the Mount is Jesus' most inspiring and challenging vision of the Christian counterculture. Here, we find a radically different value system—a higher ethical standard, deeper spiritual devotion, and a distinct attitude toward money, ambition, lifestyle, and relationships.

Everything in it stands in stark contrast to the ways of the world. This is the life of the kingdom of God: fully human, but lived out under the divine rule. Let Christ speak this sermon again—this time to us, in the modern world.
